DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is a national stage entry (371) of PCT/IB03/04532, filed October 10, 2003.
2. Claims 1-6 are currently pending.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 4 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 4, line 3: "disk" should be --disc--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tateishi (US 6,259,663).

In regard to claim 1, Tateishi discloses an apparatus (Figure 1) for processing data placed on tracks on a data carrier (5) which may have defects (abstract, line 8), the apparatus using a laser beam (B), the apparatus comprising: a servomechanism (focus driver 16; column 5, line 47: "focus servo mechanism", column 5, line 50: "tracking servo control mechanism") for guiding the laser beam on said tracks by acting on a moving part (pickup 80) that controls the laser beam, a controller device (focus driver 16; column 5, line 47: "focus servo mechanism", column 5, line 50: "tracking servo control mechanism") for controlling said moving part (80), an emulator

Art Unit: 2627

(damaged part compensating device 12) which has an electrical behavior that emulates moving behavior of said moving part (column 9, lines 3-14), a defect detector (damaged part detecting device 9) for providing a defect signal (Sdfc) for the defects on said carrier (5), a switch (13) controlled by said defect signal for applying the output of the emulator (12) to the input of the controller device if defects are detected by said defect detector (as shown in Figure 1).

In regard to claim 2, Tateishi discloses that the servomechanism acts on a radial direction (column 5, line 50: "tracking servo control mechanism").

In regard to claim 3, Tateishi discloses that the servomechanism acts on focusing the laser beam (column 5, line 47: "focus servo mechanism").

Claims 4-6 have similar limitations as claims 1-3; therefore, they are rejected on the same grounds.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed on 07/07/2008 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
